It is time.

Time divides reality into what is,
what was, what is still to come.

Time is our one bond with the far and unobtainable. Stars, a million miles away, share with us the same moment of time.

It is the span between all opposites . . .
war and peace,
fear and courage,
hate and love.

It is every moment, every joy, every sorrow of life. It passes quickly, but not suddenly, for those who are aware of it.

The mistress of time is a dream . . .

The child of time is a memory . . .

The essence of time is eternity.

student council

Student Council is an integral part of student activity at Louisville. Revisions of the outdated school constitution, made under the guidance of Mrs. Judith Katics, were finally approved by the student body. Almost every activity organized in the school is initiated in Council and its leadership is both authoritative and respected. Student Council adheres to parliamentary procedure and yet retains an atmosphere conducive to student participation.

apostleship of prayer

Officers of the Apostleship of Prayer: Eileen Beaver—secretary, Kathy Kantner—president, Sister Mary Triona—moderator, Chris Bohlig—vice-president, Sue Welker—treasurer.

Nineteen sixty-seven marks Louisville's seventh year of active membership in the international organization of the Apostleship of Prayer. This Organization promotes the practice of living the morning offering by making every daily action a prayer. Within the Louisville Chapter members undertake varying degrees of responsibility. As an act of extra devotion to the Sacred Heart, some members attend meetings held in the week of the first Friday. The theme and content of these meetings are chosen and prepared by the Senior, Junior and Sophomore promoters in turn.

Sodality Officers: Debbie Joyce—treasurer, Sister Mary Nicholas—moderator, Sallie Le Sage—prefect, Peggy Fearon—vice-prefect, Sister Mary Molua—moderator, Noreen O'Brien—secretary.

The Sodality is a way of life. Its members aim to reach Christ and to bring others to Him through consecration to Mary.

They generate enthusiasm for the Liturgy through discussion at weekly meetings and through preparation for the weekly Mass. The apostolic activities planned by the Sodality this year included an annual retreat conducted by Father William Ryan, S.J., food drives at Thanksgiving and Christmas, attendance at Mission Sunday, Mary's Hour, the Guadalupe Procession in Los Angeles, and sponsoring activities for the Propagation of the Faith. The Senior—Junior Sodality is moderated by Sister Mary Nicholas; the Sophomore probation program is directed by Sister Mary Molua.

Father William Ryan, S.J., conducted the annual retreat.

Peggy Fearon, Sallie Le Sage, and Danita Harrold packed boxes of canned goods for the Sodality food drive.

national honor society

This year, the activities of the National Honor Society, have emphasized service to the faculty and student body of Louisville and to the community. NHS members, together with the LvH chapter of the California Scholarship Federation, continued the student tutoring program and the members of the organization served as secretaries to the faculty and published the bi-monthly alumna bulletin. In November, NHS conducted a mock California gubernatorial election at school and organized an "open house" on the day of the annual "Get Acquainted" brunch. As an effort to aid civic organizations, the members stuffed envelopes for the Foundation for the Junior Blind. Student body assemblies held by NHS included the January educational assembly and a February induction ceremony.

Guest speakers, Miss Gackle and Miss Pirschel, present an informal discussion about college at a monthly meeting.

CSF Officers: Christine McNamara-vice-president, Maureen Phillips-secretary, Donna Hansen-president, Miss Pirschel-moderator, Elizabeth Hildreth-treasurer, Sister Mary dePazzi-moderator.

Members listen to a report at the monthly CSF meeting.

The Louisville Chapter of the California Scholarship Federation, installed in the spring of 1966, has aimed at encouraging high standards of scholarship, citizenship, and service in its members. During the monthly meetings, moderated by Sister Mary dePazzi and Miss Kathleen Pirschel, former graduates have led discussions concerning college. The question and answer periods which followed proved to be both interesting and informative to the CSF members.

The main project of the California Scholarship Federation was a Knowledge Bowl held in early March. The enthusiastic competition which resulted increased school spirit. CSF members also assisted the National Honor Society with the school's tutorial program.

art club

Members prepare for the art festival in May.

The Art Club, moderated by Mother Mary Ronan, aims to instill an appreciation of art not only in art students but in the entire student body. The club has fulfilled this purpose by sponsoring an art assembly and the annual trip to the art museum. The Art Festival, held in May, motivated students from many Los Angeles schools to display their work and compete for prizes. Louisville Art Club members supported this festival, exhibiting and selling their art work. The club is also responsible for school posters and decorations for the various dances and activities.

Service Club Members at work in the Lost and Found.

The Service Club, moderated by Sister Mary Josaphat, strives to serve Louisville in various capacities. During the past year, the club members have worked at many school functions, including the annual Louisville Brunch and the Christmas party. On Tuesdays and Thursdays, volunteers alternate in maintaining the Lost and Found. Service Club members have greatly contributed to the spirit of service in the school by being always ready to give their time.

Sister Mary Concord—moderator

library club

The Library Club was established to assist Sister Mary Concord, the school librarian, in carrying out essential library procedures. Members of each committee are responsible for their particular duties as well as editing the bulletin, "Library Lights," which keeps students informed of library events. This year the club presented its fourth annual hootenanny with entertainment provided by students from Louisville and local schools. The proceeds from the hootenanny were used for the expansion of the library.

Folk groups from many valley schools participated in the annual hootenanny.

Science Club Officers: Maureen Phillips-vice-president, Sister Mary Triona-moderator, Ann McCarty-president, Peggy Vanhorn-secretary

science club

Dr. Hildreth and Mr. Phillips help to conduct the Science Club field trip to Point Fermin.

Louisville's Science Club is an active organization the purpose of which is to bring about in its members an awareness and appreciation of science. Sister Mary Triona, club moderator, achieved this aim by helping the members sponsor educational outings, including a trip to the Los Angeles County Fair to view a variety of science projects. Field trips to Leo Carrillo State Beach and Point Fermin brought about an added interest in marine biology. At the Science Club monthly meetings, each class chose a certain topic and reported to the members. Some of these were Anthropology, Early Man, geology, and rock collecting.

drama club

Club members rehearse for Early Frost.

The Drama Club strives to interest its members in the performing arts and to teach them the basics of stage techniques. It also offers its members the opportunity to develop their particular talents. This year the club had several functions for all to enjoy. Louisville hosted the annual Archdiocesan Drama Festival in which over eighteen schools actively participated. Louisville's entry was the one act play Early Frost. In March, Miss Mary Louise Hickey performed Our Town for the student body. The major production of the year was Shakespeare's As You Like It staged by the Royal Players in the late spring. The play was a great success, due to the time and energy of Miss Barbara Clem, Drama Club moderator, the cast and crews.

international club

The International Language Club was formed in June of 1966 to unify the previous Spanish, French, and Latin clubs. Its purpose is to educate language minded students in the traditions, culture, and customs of different countries. It is composed of those students who are presently taking a foreign language and who show an active interest in the club activities.

This year the club sponsored field trips to places of foreign interest, including the annual Christmas trip to Olvera Street. An International Day was held, with club members representing different countries.

The informative monthly meetings were often highlighted by films of different countries.

In the short history of the club's existence, it has proven very successful with the cooperation and enthusiasm shared by its members and moderator, Mrs. Haydee Du Barry. The members hope to expand and further stimulate interest in the different languages of the world.

Club members sponsored a pastry sale to raise funds.

Antoinette Arpaia presides over the monthly meeting.

Pep Club Officers: Cookie Freitas-sergeant-at-arms, Miss Barbara Clem-moderator, Sharon Conniff-president, Debbie Brinker-vice-president, Patricia Deems-sergeant-at-arms, Angela Pine-secretary.

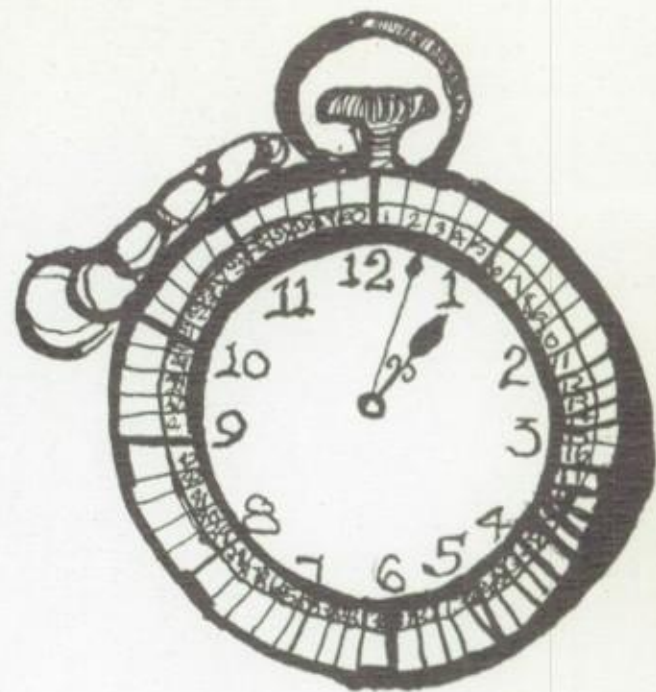

The goal of Louisville's Pep Club is to encourage student support of games and to generate school spirit. At monthly meetings, supervised by Miss Barbara Clem, Pep Club moderator, pom-poms and crowns were made to promote tournaments at Villa Cabrini and Saint Anthony's. As an added interest, members have adapted "Louie and Louise," the lions as mascots. Cheer rallies, also a prominent Pep Club activity, gave the students added incentive as well as a chance to practice cheers.

Pep rallies held on the steps of St. Louis Hall precede games.

girls athletic association

Under the direction of Miss Olgha Yanis, the Girls Athletic Association sponsors and co-ordinates athletic activities. Membership is open to any varsity team member, Pep Club officers, captains of intramural teams, and cheerleaders. At the end of each year, at the G.A.A. banquet, awards are presented to individual club members for outstanding participation in athletic events. The special awards, the G.A.A. badge, bracelet, and jacket are presented to girls who have accumulated a specified number of points. Among other activities, G.A.A. has sponsored three successful playdays.

Pat Gavin and Shannon Fay portray nursery rhyme characters at a grade school play-day.

choir

The Louisville Choir, under the direction of Mother Mary Borromeo, has had a variety of activities and performances this year. The members went to see the motion picture version of Madame Butterfly in November. In early December, in conjunction with the Freshman class, they presented Louisville's annual Christmas program. The choir also visited Holy Cross Hospital in San Fernando and Veterans' Hospital in Sepulveda. To highlight the Christmas season, choir members sang midnight Mass at St. Mel's Church. During the second semester the choir prepared for the performance in the annual archdiocesan choral festival at Notre Dame Academy.

Mrs. Donna Huckaby, moderator of the Aurora staff

aurora

The purpose of Aurora is to stimulate students' interest in creative writing. In English classes, students were urged to contribute their own writings to the literary magazine. Each entry was considered carefully and the outstanding works selected. Advised by Mrs. Donna Huckaby, the staff incorporated photography and artwork into the composite of essays, poetry and short stories. Not the least of its accomplishments was the presentation of ideas to be pondered and probed by each individual.

patrons' guild

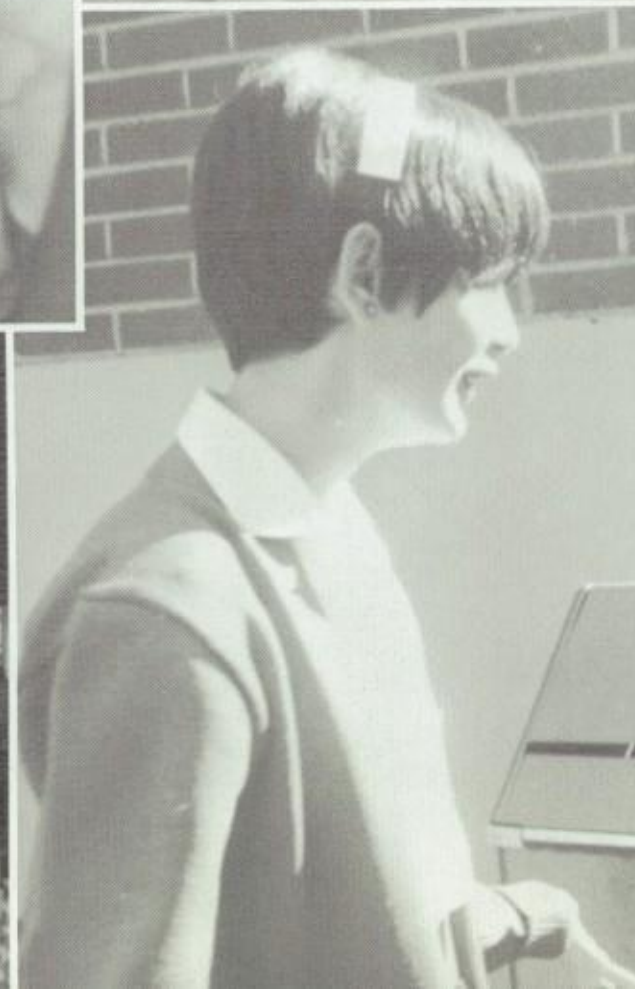

Volunteers from the Patrons' Guild help with library work.

Bringing about a working cooperation between the Louisville faculty, student body, and parents is the goal of the Patrons' Guild. This year, in an effort to more closely unite student and Patrons' Guild activities, the individual classes alternated in sponsoring the monthly meetings. The "Fleur de Lis", the group's monthly bulletin, informed parents of all Guild activities.

This year the Guild sponsored a pre-Lenten fund raising event in February. "Monte Carlo Night" was a very successful endeavor. The annual Mother-Daughter Fashion Show, held on Saint Patrick's Day, was emceed by Mr. Philip Carey.

In November the Juniors and Seniors held their annual invitational dance at the Knollwood Country Club. Music was provided by Saturday's Children in an atmosphere of old New Orleans.

father-daughter night

Louisville's fifth annual Father-Daughter Night was held on January 22. The music and night life of America's roaring twenties set the stage for the evening's entertainment and appropriate music for dancing was provided by the Vance Roberts Group. After a buffet supper prepared by the daughters, a raffle was held; the prize was a trip for two to Las Vegas. The highlight of the evening was a Charleston contest, won by Karen Papanek and her dad.

Under the fine technical supervision of Miss Olga Yanis, the basketball team completed a highly successful season. The Royals began with two strong victories, losing the third game to the perennial rival, Corvallis. Each of the CIF games exhibited the teamwork, spirit and competitive ability of the Royals. Early in March, the team, backed by the Pep Club, Drill Team and the entire student body, completed the annual trek to the Saint Anthony's Basketball Tournament.

Margaret Kurzeka represents Louisville in a "jump" against Corvallis.

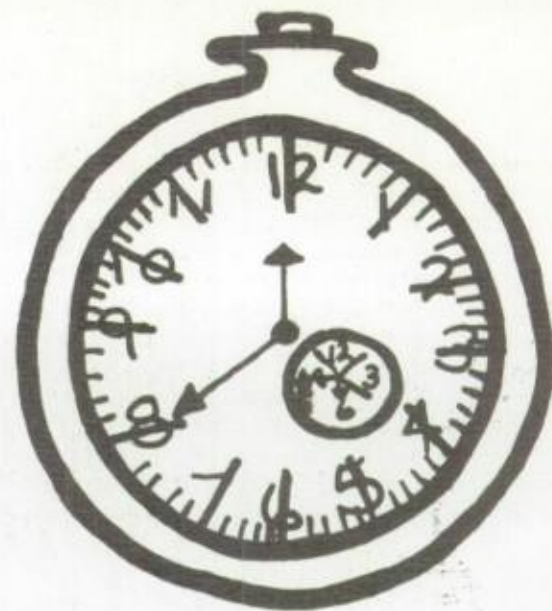

Tennis Varsity: (standing), Maureen Lavery, Vickie Travaglini, Margaret Kurzeka, Cheryl Susa, Ellen McBride, Shannon Fay, Kathy Kantner, Anne Vukalcic, (kneeling), Chris Galt, Kathy Benton, Paula Leaper, Ann McCardy, Toni Arpaia, Jan Ehlen, Pam Carey.

tennis

Although the Tennis Team is not nearly so celebrated as the other three teams, it reveals equal proportions of promising athletes. The entire team entered the Bishop Amat Tournament in the fall. Selected individuals entered the St. Catherine's, Mayfield, Santa Monica, and Westlake Tournaments. The Royals received Consolation in doubles at St. Catherine's and Chris Galt placed in the Westlake Tournament.

Tennis requires precision, skill, and speed gained only through practice.

swimming

The Swimming Team, under the dual direction of Coach Miss Olgha Yanis and student-manager Kris Gimenez, began and finished the '67 season in typical style-undefeated. The Royals have been virtually uncontested champions since 1963. The Swimming season is lengthy, beginning in October and concluding in May. This spring brought the Marymount (Westwood) meet and the Louisville Invitational Meet, the final league meet of the season.

Adequate turns and dives are an essential part of any good swimming team.

This year the Drill Team has undergone a transition. The group has greatly increased in number; new this year, and joining the Baton Corps, are the Flag and Drum Corps.

Led by Pat Delaney, the Drill Team has performed at Crespi and Notre Dame High Schools' football games. Their other appearances included the Our Lady of Guadalupe Procession, the Bethlehem Star Parade, and St. Anthony's Basketball Tournament. The Louisville Drill Team is directed by Sister Mary Otteran.
